

MAY 11 1956

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75-00001R000400040001-1

STATINTL

Frank Zilles, 32,
Employee of CIA

Frank Zilles, 32, a Central Intelligence Agency employe, collapsed and died in his rooming house at 1714 Kilbourne place N.W. last night, police reported.

Mr. Zilles had been playing ball, according to his landlady, Mrs. Myrtle L. Adams, and had returned home about 8:30 p.m. He left shortly afterward, apparently to get supper, Mrs. Adams said.

Moments later, she said, he rushed back into the house and, without saying anything, went to the second floor, where she heard him fall. He was pronounced dead by an Emergency Hospital ambulance doctor.

Mrs. Adams said he was unmarried and that his mother lives in Pittsburgh. He had been a clerical worker at the CIA for almost four years.

An autopsy was to be performed by Coroner A. Magruder MacDonald today.

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75-00001R000400520006-1